LOOKING FOR A MAN!

Our lovely Zoe, who is playing POLLY in The Matchgirls, is still without her on-stage boyfriend PERCE. If you are, or if you know of a man, who can sing a bit (not much solo singing) act and move in time with music please ask them to get in touch using email to anniedirectchoreo@hotmail.com

By joining our fabulous cast PERCE can be guaranteed a warm welcome and it would be really great to cast this part for within our own contacts if possible.

Quiz Night?

Thank you to all those who attended our quiz night.

Well done & thank you, to Martin & family for putting together another great quiz.

Also a final thank you, to everyone else who helped to organise and who helped out on the night.

Did You Know About The Matchgirls Memorial?

The Matchgirls Memorial is a charitable organisation, founded in March 2019, which aims to raise the awareness of the victorious Matchgirls Strike of 1888.

The Charity's object aim is to advance heritage for the benefit of the public, as the Matchgirls' success was the beginning of New Unionism and the Strike played a key role in labour history.

You can donate on their page to help their aim become a reality.

In Memory of Clive Swan

Clive joined KLMTTC (KLLOC back then) in 2005 as the M.D. for My Fair Lady, and since then, was our M.D. for the next 17 shows. He always worked really hard to help us sound the best that we could, especially since many of us had no musical background and couldn't read music!! But with his patience, help and guidance, we really have put on some amazing sounding shows.

It is very hard to put into a few words all the thoughts and memories you have of someone who has played such a huge part in so many people's lives. You were kind, Gentle, Hardworking, Patient and Incredibly Musically Talented are just a few that come to mind.

Thank you, Clive, for everything
R.I.P.
